INTERCULTURALISM

DR. MARVA RUDOLPH DIVERSITY AND INTERCULTURALISM UNIT EXCELLENCE AWARD NOMINATION FORM

This award will recognize an office, program, or department that have demonstrated outstanding leadership and made consistent contributions to advancing diversity and inclusion at UT. The office, program, or department receiving this award will have implemented diversity and inclusion initiatives that are linked to their mission and are sustainable.

Criteria

To be considered for this award, units must meet the following criteria:

- ✓ Offices, programs, or departments must submit a narrative, which clearly outlines their diversity achievements.
- ✓ Preference will be given to departments or units that sponsor activities with other campus units.

Nomination Statement

Please submit your nomination statement in an additional sheet. Your statement should describe the work being done in your unit to advance diversity and inclusion. This work should demonstrate outstanding leadership that is collaborative, sustainable, and linked to the unit's mission. The narrative should also include how the unit is measuring and evaluating the initiative(s) and how you will know the effort(s) is having some success.

Please send the completed nomination form and your nomination statement electronically to the Council for Diversity and Interculturalism at cdi@utk.edu
